FOODS DRIVE!

NOVEMBER 4TH IS ELECTION DAY!

Family Traditions: Dinner Elections

Even Kids Can Vote!

Teach our kids that their voices count!

The Nomination Process: Nominate the "candidates" before scheduled elections.

Break down dinner into 6 categories: main, veggie, side, fruit, dessert, drink. Have each family member pick their favorite of each.

Running the Campaign: Create a chart of "contenders" and hang it in the kitchen.

Voting: On the morning of the election, each family member gets a ballot and everyone votes. Mom and Dad count the votes and announce the winners; what is for dinner that evening.

Everyone Wins: Children see that every vote truly counts! After dinner the ballots can be studied and the kids can see that if one person had voted differently, another kind of meal would have been served.
